NOTE.—In cases where persons were charged with more than one offence, committed on the same occasion, the method of enumeration adopted in the tabular statement is as follows:—Where the accused was sentenced to two terms of imprisonment, the second to commence at expiration of first, the case has been included as two convictions. Where the sentences were concurrent, one conviction only is shown. Where a person was convicted on the first charge, and other charges were withdrawn, dismissed, or marked "No Role," the case appears simply as a conviction on the first charge.
